

Well respected Sheffield-based mental health charity seeks

Community and Corporate Fundraiser

to

1. Develop SAGE's internal communications and marketing systems and products.
2. Develop sustainable income streams from a variety of community and corporate sources.

We seek a confident, outgoing person with excellent people skills to join our small team who are highly committed to delivering positive outcomes for socially excluded adults with complex needs. Formal qualifications are not a priority but you will have a strong track record of fundraising from the general public &/or corporate sector and of event planning and delivery. You'll be self-motivated and innovative but also happy working as part of a team. You'll have good IT skills, including managing social media platforms. You'll have strong empathy for the aims of our mental health charity and a passion for the potential of greater community and corporate engagement.
